On Writing

I've completed the first step of writing a book. That is to say, I know the beginning and the ending.

I want to begin my book with the word "And". This will hopefully give the feeling that what they're about to read, just as in real life, is only piece of someone's complete story.

I want to end my book, possibly mid-sentence, or maybe even mid-word, followed by ellipses...

Now all I've to do is write that pesky middle section...

Why is the website called bytestories.com?

This is a place for "byte-sized" stories and there is a 1500 character (about 250 words) limit for two main reasons. Firstly, we want you to know that "War and Peace" isn't required to leave your mark. Secondly, it takes about 2 minutes to read each story meaning you can head here whenever you want a quick (and entertaining) read.

If you would like to share a story or create your own eBook, simply head to bytestories.com, Register an account and click on the "Share a Story" button.
