Kids have a mind of their own

My 8 year old daughter decided to have a slumber party. All I kept on hearing from the room was the boys in our class did this and the boys in our class did that. I thought girls will be girls. But then I heard my wife in the room. She was saying enjoy the way the boys are now because once they get older, all they want is one thing. My daughter said Oh I know what you are talking about mommy. When I heard that I almost dropped my cup. My wife said oh really and what is that? My daughter said All they want is a Ipad and the internet so that they could look at cats.

Why is the website called bytestories.com?

This is a place for "byte-sized" stories and there is a 1500 character (about 250 words) limit for two main reasons. Firstly, we want you to know that "War and Peace" isn't required to leave your mark. Secondly, it takes about 2 minutes to read each story meaning you can head here whenever you want a quick (and entertaining) read.

If you would like to share a story or create your own eBook, simply head to bytestories.com, Register an account and click on the "Share a Story" button.
